

Gutsy Animations

Unsolicited Submissions

Last updated 18th of November 2021

As a general practice, Gutsy Animations (including its employees and contractors) do not accept unsolicited material that is not represented by a reputable agent, agency, manager, producer, production company or studio.

Gutsy Animations does not accept and/or review unsolicited creative material of any kind, including, but not limited to: any ideas, concepts, pitches, suggestions, stories, scripts, treatments, formats, artwork, fan art, photographs, drawings, videos, reels, audiovisual works, musical compositions (including lyrics), sound recordings, program formats, characters and/or other similar works (collectively "Unsolicited Materials"). Any Unsolicited Materials received will be deleted unread.

The purpose of this policy is to avoid any potential misunderstandings if your original work seems similar to Gutsy Animations content since many works and submissions are based on the same or similar ideas.

Please note that if you intentionally or unintentionally send us such Unsolicited Materials, you acknowledge that your submission may contain ideas which are the same or similar to ideas that have already been developed, or may be developed in the future, by Gutsy Animations or other third parties without use of your submitted material. You also understand that Gutsy Animations has no obligation to you or your submission and that you have no claim whatsoever based on such submission.
